WINES OF THE MONTH

Kermit Lynch Cotes Du Rhone

For this cuvée, the blend changes every year. A blend of mostly Grenache and Syrah, along with some Mourvèdre, Carignan, and splashes of Marselan and Cinsault. As with many of the southern Rhône's quintessential reds, this one originates from a gale-strewn terroir, which reflects the southern sun into the forty-year-old vines and yields an expressive red wine full of beautiful aromas and flavors of black cherries, stones, and a hint of black olive. It's amazing to find this much southern French character and deliciousness at this price.

Chateau La Gabarre Bourdeaux

Chateau La Gabarre Bordeaux Supérieur is a blend of 70% Merlot and 30% Cabernet Franc, sourced from 35-year-old vines. The wine is aged for 18 months in stainless steel tanks and French oak barrels, resulting in a well-balanced and refined profile. It showcases a deep ruby color and an aromatic bouquet of violet, candied red berries, and fresh tannins. On the palate, it offers flavors of blackcurrant, blackberry, and a hint of spice, with a juicy and persistent finish.

$12.99

Chateau Saint-Roch Old Vines White

The Château Saint-Roch is in the heart of Roussillon, South of France, close to the Spanish border, halfway between the Pyrenees and the Mediterranean Sea. A blend of Grenache Gris and Roussane, the wine has aromas of lime zest and flavors of ripe pear. Medium bodied with beautiful concentration with a long mineral fresh finish.
